Notes (If you would like to add/explain an	ything):
ALL:	All notes added above are VARIABLE in different situations.
Homeless:	Homeless in the Bay Area range from tent dwellers to doorway dwellers. Homeless people are a growing and fluid population, meaning they have many different kinds of housing opportunities (creative)
Car Living:	People who live in their cars can be homeless and unemployed, students or even people who make $100,000+ a year
Extended Stay Hotel Living:	Those who cannot afford to own or rent in the city, but work in the city, rent our hotel rooms for months at a time and live from their rooms. Communiting home on the weekends
Student Housing:	Student housing comes in all forms, from official dorms to subleasing rooms to tent living. In this case, we are focusing on dormatories.
